HIGH PRICES LIKE BALLOONS-SOARING

C. W. YEHLE RETURNS FROM DRY GOODS BUYING TRIP.

GOODS BEING ALLOTTED

May Experience Rationing Like Food Supply — Labor Conditions and Heavy Foreign Purchases Responsible.

C. W. Yehle of the Yehle Dry Goods company, returned this morning from a two weeks buying trip to eastern markets. Mr. Yehle spent the week end past in St. Louis arrived there Thursday night where he was met by his son, Eugene Yehle, a student at the Missouri State university, Columbia, and they were guests during their stay of Mr. and Mrs. A. C Lueking and family. Mr. Lueking is vice president of the Ely-Walker wholesale dry goods company at St. Louis.

Mr. Yehle, in speaking of the general market conditions said dry goods prices would be considerably higher this fall, and not only that but merchants would experience difficulty in securing full stocks for fall. The amount delivered to the wholesalers is now to be allotted by the manufacturers and this rationing will be passed along to the retailer.

"High prices are just hanging over the country like a big balloon," was Mr Yehle's comment on the market and price conditions, "and every one below is anxiously waiting for it to burst, but no merchant can see any chance for this. There is everything to indicate higher prices. Raw materials in vast quantities are being shipped to the ravaged countries of Europe and buyers from Central and South America, Cuba, Australia and other countries with plenty of money to buy at any price, are purchasing heavily in the U. S. markets.

More than half the traveling salesmen are off the road now for the reason their firms cannot fill orders. The allotment system started by manufacturers is the only way to protect themselves and only the merchant able to buy in advance can have anything like a full stock this fall. Our firm bought heavily in advance on the earliest spring offerings, and is well supplied for spring and summer. I doubt if a woman's suit could now be bought in the wholesale market. Coupled with the great amount of goods and materials exported, is the strikes, short hours demanded by laborers and the small output, are bringing about a more chaotic condition and higher prices than we have had before and still soaring. I believe this is felt more in the carpet and drapery houses than anywhere else. Many of the largest mills have already contracted for a six months output and that amount is much less tha uthe average because of the short hours and other labor troubles. When I left here, I had an order for about a hundred yards of velour to make a stage curtain. In ordinary time, I could have bought this at any one of a dozen wholesale houses at the first order and of the best quality. I went to seven of the biggest wholesale carpet houses before I could locate that amount. Early buying is the only way to keep even with the fall advance in prices and at that they will be considerably higher."

LETTER READ TO CATHOLICS SUNDAY

FIRST DOCUMENT OF ITS KIND IN 25 YEARS IN THAT CHURCH

TAKE UP MANY PROBLEMS

Prepared by Cardinal Gibbons and the Church Hierarchy—Read in all Catholic Churches Yesterday

A Catholic pastoral letter, the first of its kind to be published in this country in thirty five years was read in all Catholic churches of Maryville yesterday. The letter dealt with Catholic education, gave a resume of war activities in that church and treated at some length international and national questions, industrial and social problems, including the question of marriage and divorce.

The letter was read at St. Mary's church by the Rev. Father Ambrose of Conception, who conducted the services yesterday. Father Ambrose was formerly a Chaplain in the United States army and was overseas. He received his discharge a few months ago.

Decrying the present social and industrial unrest the letter says:

"Though the war is ended our country is not yet restored to its normal conditions. On every side, there is unrest and agitation. The conflict of class with class makes progress impossible. It threatens to undo the splendid things which the union of all our people accomplished. It is importing into our county the evil which brought disaster on Europe. If America is to be preserved, for its own sake and for the sake of humanity, a remedy must be found for our present situation.

"This is not a time for makeshifts. The facts are before us, plainly and forcibly. They cannot be set aside. Whatever mere expedients or formalities that idea prevails, it removes the one safe smooth the surface of things, but leave guard of decency and purity in the the virus beneath. In a permanent union, the movements which are shaking the that relation possesses a human char foundation of order come out of mens acter; in a temporary arrangement, souls. "Let us not deceive ourselves in this "The sense of justice also will be dull matter. Ignorance is an evil; as such ed. If the obligations assumed through it must be removed. knowledge to abuse his freedom. This is the dangerous type. To continue its production or allow it to multiply would not be the part of wisdom.

"The first and most essential lesson in true education is that which the war has tough us. For a long time the attempt was made to regulate human affairs without any reference to God. It was thought that the advances of civilization, the progress of science and the growth of commerce had made the peace of the world secure. Religion was excluded, in great measure, from public life, and entirely from the council of nations. It was a vast experiment, conducted with all the resources of power and skill. And now we see its results."

The letter gives more attention to industrial relations in America, possibly, than any other one subject. On this topic it says in part:

"The disturbances from which our industries are suffering bring home to all the people, in direct and practical form, the need of thorough readjustment. In part, the present situation is due to the war; but its real causes lie farther back in our industrial history. It is not merely that unwise policies have been adopted, but rather that these have been framed upon wrong principles and baseless assumptions.

"It is an error to assume that the issues involved are purely economic. They are, at bottom, moral and religious. Their settlement calls for a clear perception of the obligations which justice and charity impose.

"In urging their respective claims, the parties, apparently, disregard the fact that the people as a whole have a prior claim. The first step, therefore, toward correcting the evil is to insist that the rights of the community shall prevail, that law and order shall be preserved and that the public shall not be made to suffer while the contention goes on from one mistake to another.

A Missouri Woman Could Not Sleep

Trenton, Mo.—"For many years Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has been my only medicine. For a long time I doctored for woman's weakness but instead of getting better I became worse. It seemed to affect my back; it would pain me so I could not sleep at night. I got very weak and nervous, could not do anything. My husband bought me a bottle of 'Favorite Prescription' and the one bottle did me so much good that I continued its use until I was well and hearty. Quite frequently now I take a bottle and it has kept me in good health all the time." — MRS. CHAS. KENNEDY, 1559 Cedar St.

For Those Entering Womanhood

Carthage, Mo.:—"My mother used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and was so well pleased with it that she gave it to me when I was entering womanhood, and I have used it off and on all my life for ailments for which it is intended to be helpful. I have given it to my daughter for the same ailments. It has always helped us promptly and satisfactorily.

"I have used Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for a bad cough and slight asthma, and was pleased with the way it benefited me.

"I have used Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets for constipation and biliousness all my life. I like them better than any other medicine of the kind because I can stop taking them any time without noticing any bad effects. There is no danger of getting a habit and being compelled to keep on taking them."—MRS. GEORGE F. BLUE, 711 East Second St.

Favorite Prescription "is a medicine that's made especially to build up women's strength and to cure women's ailments—an invigorating, restorative tonic, soothing cordial and bracing nervine; purely vegetable, non-alcoholic, and perfectly harmless.

ROSY CHEEKS ASSURED BY TRYPAN DYE-DOCTORS SAYS.

Philadelphia, Feb. 23.—Would you have lasting rosy cheeks, girls? then try trypan red dyes made in America. Injected into your cheeks they will stain the tissues without harmful effect. This fact appears to have developed during laboratory experiments made at Phipps Institute in research for a tuberculosis specific.

Tests with different dyes showed that guinea pigs could be turned blue and white mice made green. The red would seem to give hope for sallow-faced women.

Only 6S per cent of the farms have thus far been tabulated.

There Was Nothing So Good for Congestion and Colds as Mustard

But the old-fashioned mustard-plaster burned and blistered while it acted. Get the relief and help that mustard plasters gave, without the plaster and without the blister.

Musterole does it. It is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. It is scientifically prepared, so that it works wonders, and yet does not blister the tenderest skin.

Gently massage Musterole in with the finger-tips. See how quickly it brings relief—how speedily the pain disappears.

Use Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, tonsilitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

IT PAYS TO NAME THE FARM— THE UNUSUAL THAT COUNTS

Farm Home With a Name Is a Good Opportunity to Keep Products Before Public.

That "It Pays to Name the Farm" is no longer debatable in Missouri, so says Secretary Jewell Mayes of the State Board of Agriculture. The first "Farm Name Law" to be enacted by any state was written and introduced in the Legislature by Congressman W. L. Nelson in 1907. It contains only eleven lines, and is one of the shortest complete statutes in the history of legislation. This law has been copied by several states, in one form or other.

The Missouri State Board of Agriculture, on request to the Jefferson City office will send to any farmer a free bulletin on "Farm Names" which gives listings of many appropriate names, also suggestions for stationery for farmers.

This board state of ours is filled with an abundance from her fertile fields, yet of all this abundance which comes to us, how little is there that reaches us carring the distinguishing mark of its producer. Surely we are as much interested in the source from which that which reaches us from the farm comes as we are in that from which come the numerous other articles of our daily consumption. Yet, in surprisingly few instances do we find our farms and our farm homes named as are the factories from which come our flakes of corn, our baking powder and the many articles which we eat or wear?

Naming the farm is equally as valuable as naming the factory. One is just as much advertising as the other and each points to the pride which the owner takes in that which he produces.

Attractively named, the farm should have most prominently displayed the evidences of its name. Meadow Valley Farm" or some other equally attractive name upon the barn, arched over the gate by the roadside, on a farm bulletin board or otherwise prominently displayed, will surely make a much more vivid and lasting impression than will the familiar box number upon the "R. F. D." post, even though this latter bit of intelligence may have added to it such inscription as may indicate that this particular box marks the farm of some "John Smith."

The world is full of 'R. F. D. boxes' and 'John Smiths.' It is the unusual that counts, and the farm with a name is the one which avails itself of every opportunity to keep itself and its products always in the eyes of the passerby.

James Pistole of Hopkins was a visitor in Maryville today.

ST. JOE BASKET BALL TEAM COMING ON SPECIAL TRAIN

High School Boys Want to Match the 150 Crowd With one Equal.

Bring on your pep. Boy, page the rooters of the high school basket ball team.

The Benton high school team of St. Joseph, whom the high school boys meet on the college court here Friday night is coming in a special train bringing about a hundred and fifty supporters. The home boys are sending out gilt edge emphatic invitations to their crowd of supporters here to be on hands that night with their whistles moist enough to 'root" right.

Th Maryville boys are keeping in good practice for the game, their spirits took a boost in the winning last Friday night from the Lafayette high school by a score of 20 to 15.

On account of the time schedule for the special train from St. Joseph, the game Friday night will be called on the minute at 7:30 o'clock.

According to an ancient Irish superstition a vicious horse could be tamed by whispering the creed in its right ear Friday,s and in its left ear on Wednesday till it was cured, which was merely a matter of time, unless it had been born at Whitsuntide, in which case it was ineurable.

Missouri Shoe Dealers.

The Missouri Retail Shoe Dealers' Association went on record last week as recommending the repeal by Congress of the excess profits tax and as favoring a $60,000,000 bond issue by the State of Missouri for the purpose of constructing and maintaining good roads.

It is a popular error to suppose that indigestion is merely an affection of the stomach. There is not a single organ, a single tissue, or a nerve which is not affected to some considerable degree.

MOLINE UNIVERSAL TRACTOR
It Solves The Farm Help Problem

Scarcity of help and the high cost of labor, etc., is causing many farmers to sell out or rent their farms, right at a time when the profits from farming should be greater than ever before.

But the only way to make a profit is to grow the crop, and an implement that takes the place of several men and teams is the only thing that will help the farmer to raise more or even as much as heretofore.

The fact that the Moline Universal Tractor is a one-man machine and that it will do all the farm work that could be done by men and teams, makes it the most efficient and economical means of increasing production at a profit.

Personal Instruction in the Care and Operation of the Moline Given to Every Purchaser.
